

JUDY ANN MOULTON is a member of Actors Equity Association and the Pacific Northwest Cabaret Association, Judy Ann has been performing on Pacific Northwest stages for over 20 years, including the 5th Avenue Theatre, Village Theatre, Bellevue Civic Theatre, and Coeur d'Alene Summer Theatre. Some of Judy's favorite roles so far are Princess Puffer in THE MYSTERY OF EDWIN DROOD, Old Lady in CANDIDE, Annie Oakley in ANNIE GET YOUR GUN, the Narrator in JOSEPH... TECHNICOLOR DREAMCOAT, Sister Hubert in NUNSENSE and the title role in MAME. Judy was named the Best Actress of 2000 by www.seattlecitysearch.com

She attended the prestigious International Cabaret Conference at Yale University in 2010, where she studied with Sharon McNight, Tovah Feldshuh, Pamela Myers, Sally Mayes, Jason Graae, Alex Rybeck, Faith Prince and other notable performers. Judy Ann has performed her one-woman show JUDY SINGS JUDY to enthusiastic audiences in her home town of Seattle, in Palm Springs, CA and in places as far away as Winchester, England.

Judy Ann's inspiration for singing comes from the women in her family that were professional singers and songwriters. JUDY SINGS JUDY received the BroadwayWorld.com Critic's Choice Award for Best Theatrical Event of 2010.