

CAYMAN ILIKA has appeared in numerous concerts and musical theatre productions across the United States in such notable roles as Velma in CHICAGO, Julie in SHOWBOAT, Amneris in AIDA, Louise / Gypsy Rose Lee in GYPSY, Bobbi / Oolie in CITY OF ANGELS, Maria in THE SOUND OF MUSIC, Marian in THE MUSIC MAN, and her recently highly acclaimed portrayal of Kathy in the West Coast Premiere of VANITIES. Other theatrical credits include SUNDAY IN THE PARK WITH GEORGE, CANDIDE, THE BEST LITTLE WHOREHOUSE IN TEXAS, WONDERFUL TOWN and world premiere of SAVING AIMEE.

She received rave reviews as Patsy Cline in two productions ALWAYS... PATSY CLINE, with her voice described by the press as “sumptuous”, “rich”, “mellifluous”, “electric” and “a powerful combination of warm honey and a high voltage electric charge”.

Ms. Ilika is happily married to law student Gav Jacobs, and resides in the San Francisco Bay area.

“Ilika has a beautiful voice and when she sings, her output just oozed and seeped around the theatre, creeping snuggly into every corner of the auditorium. [She] just charmed and softened the crowd, so that by the end of each song we were all honorary rednecks. And half of us were in love.”

Ladies, drag your men to this whether they like it or not. Gents, once you get there, just listen to Cayman Ilika sing. Neither of you will regret it.”

---Prost Amerika